STRAUSS WITHDRAWS

From the Head of the New York City Tammany Ticket.

New York, Oct. 19 .- Nathan Strauss has formally announced his refusal to stand as the Tammany candidate for the mayoralty.

He sent a letter to Chairman James J. Martin, chairman of Tammany's executive committee to-day, stating his reasons for withdrawing from the race.

official declination, addressed as The official declination, addressed as the law requires, to the board of police commissioners, has been regularly filed. It is purely formal, At Tammany head-quarters Mr. Strauss was asked it had heard from Mr. Hill and if he would make a statement. He replied very cartly: "I won't say a word about anything."

From information gathered from a Democratic politician to-day it can be stated that Senator Hill told Mr. Straus that he would not recede from his determination to allow his name to be printed on the Grace ticket, and that he also intimated pretty plainly that the the content of the Democratic state. the success of the Democratic state ticket was of far more importance than the success of any individual or faction.

THE END APPROACHING.

The Condition of the Czar is Worse, and His Recovery Seems Out of the Ques

St. Petersburg, Oct. 19.—There seems to be no longer any reasonable doubt that the czar is rapidly approaching his end. A dispatch received here from Livadia to-day announces that the condition of the czar has changed for the worse since yesterday, and the imperial family is described as being alarmed at the present condition of the sick A special dispatch received subse-

A special dispatch received subsequently from Livadia says that the czar last evening suffered from a sudden spasm of the heart which compelled him to lie down. His condition became so critical that his confessor, Father Yanischew, was hastily summoned.

Father Yanischew, was hastily summoned.

A Lesson from the Microscope That Should be a Solema Warning to

The subjoined picture shows sections of a magnified drop taken from a person suffering with Bright's disease of the kidneys. Imagine the warring action of these organisms upon the delicate tissue of the system. Is it any wonder that so many thousands of people die so prematurely of Bright's disease of the kidneys—that so many women be-come hollow cheeked, sallow complect-ed, despondent and finally decline and die, when such elements are preying noon them day and night? upon them day and night?
Is it any wonder that

Is it any wonder that some strong men gradually go down, becoming weaker until finally they are brought low by the same cause? All these things tend to cause careful, thoughtful things tend to cause careful, intograms persons to guard against that great modern evil—Bright's disease. It is the most dangerous, the most treacherous disease of the present day. It is carrying off more prominent people than all other diseases combined. It attacks those in the middle walks of life and it threatens all classes. There life and it threatens all classes. There is but one thing that can be done when it approaches and that is to fly for relief at once to the only remedy known to the world that can control it, and that is Warner's safe cure. If you doubt this, read the following:

UPTON, MASS., July 1, 1894.

II II Warner & Co.: GENTLEMEN:-I made a partial state Gentlemen:—I made a partial statement of my case to your agent. As you wish me to make a full statement, I will be pleased to do so. Fourteen years ago last March, I was taken sick. Our famify physician was called in and treated me for four weeks, and I did not get any better. My feet were bloating badly, and I had gotten so bad that I could not walk and was short breathed. I changed physicians and got a very skillful one from another town who made an examination, and told me that I had Bright's disease in its last stages. I had Bright's disease in its last stages I had Bright's disease in its last stages. I was bloated up to my chest. He said the urine was one-fourth albumen with some casts in it. He tried his skill on me for three weeks, and told my wife I could not live three months. My sister came to see me, and brought a paper with a wonderful cure your medicine had made. She persuaded ma to try it. I told her that a paper with a wonderin care your medicine had made. She persuaded me to try it. I told her that I did not think there was any use of my doing so, but she insisted, telling me she would send me a bottle. I told the she would send me a bottle. I told the doctor that I was going to let him go, and try patent medicine. I commenced taking your remedy, and began to grow better after taking one bottle. I took ten bottles of the medicine, and in four weeks I was able to see my work and work some myself. In less than a year I was a well man. My employment is that of an engineer in the winter, and I work on a farm during the summer. I have to make twelve hours at the shop and take care of five cows morning and night. I would adthe summer. I have to make twelve hours at the shop and take care of five cows morning and night. I would advise any one with kidney disease to use your remedies, as it was their use which put me on my feet making a well man of me. You can use as much of this as you Yours respectfully, ZIBA B. GRUNDY.
